Contact: R. Peyton Mahaffey, mahaffey@mccandlaw.com, 703-273-2288

The law firm of McCandlish & Lillard, P.C. is pleased to announce that the Virginia Law Foundation has selected, R. Peyton Mahaffey to become a Fellow of the Virginia Law Foundation for 2011 (www.virginialawfoundation.org). Induction will be held in conjunction with the Virginia Bar Association's Annual Winter meeting in Williamsburg, Virginia, January 20, 2011. This honor is conferred on Virginia lawyers of integrity and character who are outstanding in their profession and in their communities. The Fellows program is an important component of the mission of the Virginia Law Foundation. The community service performed by individual Fellows and their contributions to the Foundation all advance the public service goals of the Foundation.

Mr. Mahaffey is the President of McCandlish & Lillard, and has actively litigated business, corporate and commercial matters on a continuing basis since 1980. He has broad experience as a trial lawyer and lead counsel in state and federal cases, as well as in arbitration and mediation. He has tried numerous jury and non-jury cases, written and argued several appellate briefs to the Virginia Supreme Court and Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, and has been the principal attorney on a number of reported state and federal decisions. More information regarding his practice is available at the McCandlish & Lillard website (www.mccandlaw.com).

The attorneys of McCandlish & Lillard, P.C. and its predecessors have been meeting the legal needs of businesses and individuals in Northern Virginia and throughout the Commonwealth since 1908. The firm has 24 lawyers, with offices in Fairfax and Leesburg, Virginia. For more information regarding the firm, please call 703-273-2288, or visit its web site.
